Another Sanitorium.

There will be a concerted attempt nade during the next Legislature to nitorium for incipient cases of tuberlosis, notwithstanding the fact that enator Proctor has just presented the tate with an up-to-date institution, tae oundation of which will soon be com-menced at Pittstord. The state tuberulosis commission together with many thers believe tha this is only a beginning in the right direction and that from w on for some years the state must do er share in carrying out this much peeded work. The campaign waged the past two years by the state commission appointed officially by the legislature has been one of education and there is no oubt a marked change in the sentiment hroughout Vermont as to the need of reventative measures to keep down uberculosis in the state.
